SEPTEMBER 2011

THE PARISHES OF BRANDESTON AND KETTLEBURGH

Dear Friends,

One of the abiding memories of August will be the shocking sight of the looting and riots seen on television, and graphically reported in the press. Such scenes seemed to be beyond comprehension, and from peaceful Suffolk almost on another planet.

But the reality is that two hours away in parts of London the police for a short time lost control of the streets.

It is too easy for the Church to adopt the moral high ground at times like these, but one has to ask whether as a society, we are reaping the harvest of an increasingly secular, and materialistic society.

In Marlesford Church, and many others, the Creed and the 10 commandments are framed on either side of the altar table, at the East End of the Church.

Countless children who attended Church and Sunday School would have grown up with these reminders of Christian values. They formed the basis of our society.

‘Thou shalt not steal’ is not a negative commandment, but a reminder that with rights come responsibilities.

The Church has a vital part to play in building community, and perhaps its teachings will be seen to be as relevant now as they ever were.

May God bless you all,
Harry Edwards. Rector.

THE CHURCH BIKE RIDE

Saturday 10th September will be the 30th year for the Bike Ride. As the churches need so much money spent on them, especially this year, it would be lovely to see some new riders, as well as the regular ones.

It can be a most enjoyable day (weather permitting). All the churches will be open and will welcome you with drinks & eats to see you on your way. You can also stop for a picnic or at one of the local pubs for a snack.

Sponsor forms and list of churches to visit are now available from:-

If you still have energy after the Church Bike Ride on 10th Sept –

GET ON YOUR BIKE FOR ST ELIZABETH HOSPICE

Cyclists are asked to get into gear for a fundraising ride called On Your Bike! , in aid of St Elizabeth Hospice.

Whether you are a serious cyclist or want a family ride out, you will be welcome to take part in the event on Sunday 11th September.

There are three distances and all routes start and finish in the beautiful grounds of the Royal Hospital School in Holbrook.

Choose from:

- 75 mile challenge – For those cyclists wishing to push themselves
- 50 mile challenge – An intermediate challenge taking in picturesque countryside and villages
- 11.5 mile – A fun ride for all ages and abilities

Cyclists are asked to raise sponsorship and all proceeds will help the Hospice, an independent charity which costs £6m a year to run, provide services free of charge for patients throughout Suffolk as well as support for their relatives and carers.

This is the second On Your Bike with last year's inaugural event attracting 200 cyclists and raising thousands of pounds.

To register online for On Your Bike! visit www.stelizabethhospice.org.uk. Entry fees in advance are £15 for the longer rides and £5 for the 11.5 mile circuit. Rides start between 9am and 10am.

INTRODUCING A GREATER BENEFICE BIBLE STUDY

This month we are introducing a monthly Bible Study.

This autumn it will take place on the second Tuesday of each month, between 7.30pm and 9.00pm in a different parish and venue across the greater benefice each month.

During each session we will look at and begin to explore the themes and ideas in the lectionary Bible readings set for the following four Sundays.

The first meeting in September will take place in the Meeting Room in Brandeston Village Hall on Tuesday 13th September. We will be basing our study on St Paul's Epistle to the Phillipians, and the four "judgement" parables in St Matthew's Gospel, Chapters 20 to 22. These evenings are entirely open and free, and everyone and anyone who wishes to come is invited and will be most welcome. A number of people have requested something along these lines, and we hope that what is now planned will be helpful and enjoyable. RA

SONGS OF PRAISE

On the last Sunday in July All Saints Brandeston changed its format for BCP evensong to a Songs of Praise. Members of the congregation introduced each hymn with a short history of its origin and the service included a meditation on God the Weaver. It was so appreciated that the format will be repeated on Sunday October 23rd at 6.30pm.

We look forward to seeing anyone who enjoys heartily singing their favourite hymns and friends from across the benefice will receive a warm welcome too.

PAST EVENTS

THE SUFFOLK FOUNDATION – SUFFOLK DOG DAY

Our heartfelt thanks go to everyone who joined us at Helmingham Hall on Saturday 30th July for our fourth Suffolk Dog Day. After a month of rain, the Committee and volunteers were delighted to welcome fine weather along with 7,000 guests and their dogs to another special day for Suffolk. TV presenter Shauna Lowry from Animal Hospital opened the event, and the day's mix of fun dog classes, musical sits, dog football, scurries and agility from On the Scent had something for everyone. In total, the event raised over £45,000 for local charities and community groups – many of whom are working with some of the most vulnerable people in our communities. Chief Executive Stephen Singleton explains, "What makes this day extra-special is the fact that all of this family fun is going to make a real difference to our ability to support local families in crisis who are struggling for whatever reason. This year, we were delighted to welcome a number of groups we support to share their stories and we hope their displays have added a reminder of why our volunteers organise this tremendous event."

We are hugely grateful to our Chairdog Jacqui Mayne and her wonderful Committee who have yet again worked tirelessly to organise a day to remember – huge thanks go to: Jacqui Mayne, Peter Newnham, Emma Lloyd, Cara Davani, Jean Tuckwell, Marion Fletcher, Peter Cresdee, Mary Woolley, Georgie Keates, Jo Cresdee, Mona Sheepshanks, Cindy de la Rue and Elizabeth Stephenson.

CAN YOU HELP?

Are you a retired professional who would like to put your career experience and skills to good use? The Suffolk Coastal branch of Cruse Bereavement Care is in urgent need of someone to attend county and branch committee meetings and to do some liaison and administrative work. You would be helping us to continue to provide a service to bereaved people in the area. If you would like to find out more, please phone Sue Wilson on 01728 747529 for an informal chat.

HERE COME THE TOYS!

St Elizabeth Hospice is urging parents and pre-schools to dig out the playthings children no longer use and hand them to their Framlingham shop during its 2011 Toy Amnesty. Unwanted toys can be taken to the shop on Market Hill during September. The aim is to get parents having an end of summer holidays clear-out to hand in the toys children have outgrown.

And once the school term starts, they are also encouraging Suffolk pre-schools and playgroups to hold their own mini-collections and hand over donations in bulk to the Hospice.

The donated toys will be sold in special toy sections of the shops across Suffolk from October half term, to raise money for the charity, which costs £6.6m a year to run and relies on fundraising.

To find out more call 01473 723600 or visit www.stelizabethhospice.org.uk

COME AND SEE FLY PAST AT DRAGON BOAT RACE AND FAMILY DAY

A World War Two flypast will be the highlight of a fundraising family day and dragon boat race in aid of St Elizabeth Hospice. The event takes place at Alton Water on Sunday September 25. Crews are still needed to battle it out in the Dragon Boat race but there will also be plenty of entertainment on the day, so why not bring friends and family along to spectate. For more details visit www.stelizabethhospice.org.uk or call 01473 723600.

LINK ROMANIA SHOEBOX APPEAL 2011

Many people now contribute to this charity each year, and this is just a reminder to start thinking about items for box(es) this year. If you would like to know more about the appeal, contact Jackie Clark (723623) or take a look at the website:

www.linkromania.co.uk/shoebox-appeal There is a link on the Kettleburgh website (Church page). Last year out of a total of 45,379 boxes delivered to families in Romania, Moldova, Albania, Bulgaria and Ukraine, 18 were sent from Kettleburgh. JC

TIMES PAST

There are several stories to tell of men who were millers in Brandeston and Kettleburgh. Here is a rather sad tale concerning a man who spent half a century at the Watermill in Kettleburgh. In 1842 Frederick William Cullum took over the property. He was a young man of twenty two from Alderton near Bawdsey. Here is his bill from the forge for that year:-

‘Mr F. Cullum		£..s..d
Feb 25 th	New spade	0..6..6
Feb 28 th	New rake	0..2..6
March 8 th	Mend back chane and Tayl bood to cart	0..1..0
March 9 th	Mend crotch to Mill and Cross Bar	0..0..9
Dec 7 th	Mend Gun	0..1..3’

Frederick was joined by his younger brother Charles, a lad of sixteen. Presumably the mill prospered as in 1843 Gater Moss, nineteen was also taken into employment. Then at the end of February 1847 tragedy struck. Charles Cullum in attending to the flood gate and letting it down, accidentally fell into the River Deben and was drowned. There is a memorial to him South East of the Church.

‘Charles John Cullum accidentally drowned at the Mill in this parish 28.1.1847 aged 21

An instance here you have before your eyes
How soon the healthiest man’s cut sown and dies.
At morning I rose in health and in my bloom
And ere the sun was up and my life was gone.
Reader reflect. Prepare to follow me
For the next grave that’s made may be for thee.’

In February 1850 tragedy struck again. By this time Frederick had married Judith Gooderham, a daughter of the farmer at Hoo Hall. Judith’s brother James and another sister went to the Mill for tea with the Cullums. They were joined by John Gooderham aged sixty seven, their father and enjoyed a family party.

About midnight Mr Gooderham left, having drunk rather heavily. James left an hour later. He found his mother still waiting up for her husband who, on this dark night, had mistaken his path, fallen into the Deben and drowned.

The third tragedy took place nine years later in August 1859 when Judith Cullum aged forty, committed suicide by drowning. She left a note saying that her husband was not to blame. It was thought that Gooderham family matters had depressed her. A verdict of ‘being at that time in an unsound state of mind’ was given.

Meanwhile work flourished. Frederick bought land on a nearby high point along the Easton Road and in 1855, had an Ipswich windmill from Tuddenham Road re-erected on the site, to be run in conjunction with the watermill.

Life continued this, but by 1871 new methods were emerging. Roller milling was being developed, so the windmill ceased functioning about 1873. Frederick Cullum continued working and living at the watermill until his death in 1892 at the age of seventy three. He was buried beside his wife and brother.

Correction to August Times Past

Please note a slight alteration for last month's Times Past, headed 'Quakers in Brandeston' ...the fifteenth year of Elizabeth I ... should read ...the last year of the reign of Henry VIII when Elizabeth would have been fifteen years of age...'
