MARCH 2017

PARISHES OF BRANDESTON AND KETTLEBURGH

Dear Friends

Am I the only person to feel that this year is moving like greased lightning? It's March already! The Church now enters the season of Lent, all flowers are removed, and the colour of the frontals is purple for a penitential season. This is because Lent is the time when Christians imitate Jesus' experiences in the desert, a time when he was stripped of the most basic things, life's necessities. He had nothing left but to come face to face with God.

Some people give up things for Lent, treating it like a period of abstinence from things that comfort, like chocolate and even alcohol which is good for our pockets and make us appreciate them all the more when we have them again. It's a humbling experience not to take things for granted and to realise how very fortunate we are. We have so much that we can give up things for 40 days, remembering elsewhere in the world people are going hungry. In Kagera, a Diocese in Tanzania (which St Eds & Ips have been helping support for many, many years) the crops people grow on small plots of land to support and feed their families have failed, due to lack of rain, and near drought conditions exist.

If you were thinking you might give up something for Lent, might I suggest you join me this year in 'doing' something instead of 'not doing' something? I am not going to buy any wine during Lent, although the more observant reader will notice I haven't said I won't drink any!! But it is my intention to try for a 'dry' –wine free Lent this year, and donate the amount of money I would have spent on buying wine, to the Kagera Appeal. You can read more about this appeal and how you join in by following this link kagera@cofesuffolk.org. Kagera is such a poor Diocese that we seem wealthy by comparison, so any donation you might make will be of immense help to them.

We will be taking a second collection at our United Service in Parham on March 5th so please look out for the special baskets and perhaps give a donation as a mark of support for our brothers and sisters in Africa. Lent is about sacrifice, and maybe a financial sacrifice to Tanzania is something you might like to consider this year but whatever it is we do for Lent it is all about preparing ourselves mentally and spiritually for the joys and bounty of Easter.

With love in Christ
Deirdre

People with a Passion

People with a Passion is a series of talks where Brandeston people who have something in their lives they feel passionate about, give us a short presentation. It could be a skill or hobby, a place, a piece of music, a poem or a poet, a book or an author, an aspect of their job, a sport or just about anything that they can talk passionately about for 45 minutes or so. The series will run during these winter months and restart in the autumn. The first talk was in January by Alastair Chapman when he described his view of the City to which he has commuted for over thirty years.

This next two in this first series will be:

Thursday, 23 March - Michael Cousens: Mahler's "Resurrection" (How music proves an afterlife.)

All the talks will be in the village hall, meeting from 7:45 pm for an 8:00 pm start. Entry is open to anyone. It will be £5 on the door and will include a glass of wine and nibbles. After the presentation, people will be able to mingle and talk to the presenter and there will be a cash bar.

It takes a lot of courage to volunteer and deliver a talk to your friends and neighbours so I hope you will turn out and support our speakers on these cold winter nights.

If you feel you could give a talk, or you know of someone who would, please get in touch. I already have several volunteers for next autumn and winter but I would like some more.

We're delighted to announce that our next Spring tour show is The Strange Undoing of Prudencia Hart by David Greig. The play, originally produced by the National Theatre of Scotland in 2011, is currently playing off Broadway in New York to rave reviews.

What's it all about then? Follow Prudencia – an academic on her way to attend a conference in Kelso. As snow starts to fall, she begins a mystical adventure of self-discovery accompanied by plenty of folky musical moments. The strange and beautiful Scottish tale is told by four mischievous storytellers. Sometimes they speak in boombastic rhyming verse, sometimes through beguiling traditional folk songs, which will set your toes tapping and your heart racing!

ST.ELIZABETH HOSPICE GREAT GARDEN TRAIL

I hope that you are well and had a lovely Christmas and New Year.

St Elizabeth Hospice is hosting a Great Garden Trail this summer, and we are asking for supporters to open their gardens and be part of it.

Green-fingered supporters are invited to open their gardens to the public as part of St Elizabeth Hospice's brand new 'Great Garden Trail' this summer.

The local charity is appealing for individuals or whole villages to open their gates and be part of the trail which will be taking place between May and September 2017.

All the gardens will then appear on a unique trail map, alongside a short description with key details of the garden and opening days and times, so that supporters can follow the route and journey throughout the region, exploring the varied and beautiful gardens on display.

By opening your garden for one morning or afternoon this summer you can make a difference and help St Elizabeth Hospice continue to improve life for local people living with an incurable illness.

The charity is looking for a wide variety of displays; so whether your garden is traditional or contemporary, tranquil or tropical, cosy or large, why not invite others to admire your horticultural skills whilst raising funds for your local hospice?

If you would like to open your garden this summer, or for more information on The Great Garden Trail please call 01473 723600 or email fundraising@stelizabethhospice.org.uk.

St Elizabeth Hospice is an independent charity which provides vital care and support free of charge to patients and their families across east Suffolk. The hospice costs millions of pounds a year to run, and relies on fundraising events, donations and the income generated from its shops to meet the majority of these costs.

Many Thanks, Sophie Johnson

THE KETTLEBURGH PLAYERS 'BEAUTY AND THE BEAST'

The best ever! We say that each year and it really is 'the best' each year. 'Beauty and the Beast' by the Kettleburgh Players was yet another triumph with a full house, or nearly, at every performance. One of the most loved fairy tales. It is the story of the squire's daughter held prisoner by the beast after her father stole a rose from the palace garden. The story opened with the prince, Lottie, and his servant, Lurch (played by Daniel) listening to the moaning grumbles of the old woman in black who with a quick flick of her clothes miraculously turned into Fairy Nick (not too dainty a vision in red!). We were treated throughout to the lovely singing of Nick, Les the beast, Beauty Chloe the eldest daughter of the Squire Richard, Bill and Ben (Molly and Hannah) and Fairy Liquid Katie. In lime green 'she can come into my kitchen any time' was heard from one man in the audience at the back! Scattering rose petals as they skipped onto the stage the delightful Sammy, Evie, Amber, Macey, Libby, Verity and Connie deserved the 'ahs and oohs' they got from the audience. The Squire's two younger daughters Dolly and Daisy played by Jasmine and Alice were suitably kept in order by Mrs. Wizziwig, Kathy, along with Bob and Dorothy (Gruff and Izzie). Heat, Glow and Therm, (Jonny, Elvis and Reuben) were well occupied in Squire Booty's house with their bags of tools and not forgetting the maids Hannah, Val, Suzy and Lottie setting the table to the 'jerky' music who were lovely. Without the help of all 'the back room boys' there would be no pantomime. And, we have to mention the Finbow family, Denis and John for the stage construction, Mark and Suzie Bailey, the scenery artists Sue, Les and Jemma, Jackie and Bill for the amazing lighting, Katherine and Trevor for the music and Sue Brooks who tried to keep them all to their words.

Finally, as this is the last pantomime written by Liz Marzetti and so ably directed by Kathy Churchill (who had time during the performance to belly dance her way in a pink and purple flash up the hall and disappear off) we owe them both a huge vote of thanks for the script and the hard work over the last few months.

Was this the last pantomime? Probably not. . . . .we hope. AB
