Wednesday 2.30pm at Hacheston Village Hall committee room for the 5 Wednesdays 21st Feb to 21st March inclusive.

Invitation to the 2018 Lent Group

This year, we will be looking at one of the Letters in the New Testament - the Letter of James. Although this is a short letter - it has lots to teach us about God and about the challenges that we face as Christians. It will be good to be able to spend time together being thoughtful and prayerful. We will be meeting in the committee room of Hacheston Village Hall at 3pm on 21st February and on the four Wednesdays following. Our meetings will last about three quarters of an hour. Please read the Letter of James before you come, and bring along whichever translation of the Bible that you prefer. Please also bring a pencil and paper. You never know, we might agree some homework!

Revd Richard Ginn

Good Friday

There will be a short activity for children in Brandeston Church on Good Friday at 9.30 where we will build an Easter Garden. Families from all parishes in the benefice will be very welcome.

A liturgical performance of

The Seven Last Words From The Cross

Music by Joseph Haydn

performed by

Jim McLeod - violin Jim O'Toole violin
Wendy Poulston - viola Harriett Bennett - cello

The Seven Last Words of our Saviour from the Cross.

Good Friday. 11.30am at Hacheston Church

Haydn was commissioned in 1785 by the Canon of Cadiz Cathedral to write seven slow movements describing each of the last words from the cross. After the prelude comes the sentence 'Father forgive them for they know not what they do', followed by a brief meditation and prayer. This leads to a slow movement from the string quartet describing those words. This pattern is then repeated until the seventh reading – 'Into Thy hands, Lord, I commend my spirit' and the slow movement after which Hayden completes the work with a finale of loud and fast music depicting the earthquake and the rending of the temple curtain.

The whole thing will take 90 minutes. The liturgical side of the proceedings will be led by Richard Ginn and Deirdre Parmenter We are extremely lucky to have Jim Macleod leading the Sudbourne Ensemble to provide the music. Do come and don't miss a truly memorable event.

In memory of Annette Elizabeth Hulme

We began 2018 with the sad news that Annette Hulme had passed away. During the few years she lived in Kettleburgh, Annette was an active and enthusiastic member of the village. She was a former committee member of the Village Hall, taking responsibility for organising the village fete and engaged in all other fundraising activities. She was a valued Trustee for the charity Suffolk Family Carers and made a significant contribution. Over 150 people attended her funeral on February 2nd 2018, below is an extract from her husband Nick's eulogy.

"Annette was born to Peter and Bundle Goodwin at 2.00pm 24th August 1959 at Templecombe in Dorset. She was 30 minutes after her twin brother Julian, the only time he was to gain an advantage over her from that point forward. Annette was always in charge.... and the arrival of their younger sibling Paul, was to make no difference to the established order of things.

Like her mother and grandmother before her, Annette's first love was horses. Pony club and eventing in the New Forest, dominated her early years, only interrupted by her school life at the Atherley School for girls in Southampton where straw boaters and green pants were 'de rigueur'. The next step was sixth form Totton College where she met Simon, whom she claimed to 'fall for' after he came to her aid in a heated debate about foxhunting staged during an English class. They were to go on to marry just a few years later. This was not, however, before she had started down the road of agriculture and became a milk maid at a farm just outside Lyndhurst. Here the hours were long and a 4am start was followed by pork pies and mars bars for breakfast, not a diet she was to continue later in life.

Early married life was commenced around the London end of the M3 where frequent trips back to her parents in the New Forest continued. She was by now working for 'Thorn EMI', which she always described as a 'blue chip' company. She was busily working her way up the ranks when the time for children interrupted progress.

Her beloved son Tom was born in June 1988. He, like his mother, was a twin but sadly his sister Victoria was stillborn. A couple of years later Georgina came along. As you might imagine, Annette treated motherhood as a complex, multi-faceted project.... she stopped short of Gant charts and dashboards, but only because they hadn't been invented back then. She made sure Tom and Georgie had the very best start she could give them and then carried on the same level of care and supervision the whole of her life

Once the children started school, Annette went back to work, initially 'part time' with a charity and eventually moving into the Health Service and Human Resources. It wasn't long before she realised a lot of the people above her, were less able than she was, and she set about getting the qualifications to move 'onwards and upwards'. The word 'dissertation' became a thing of parody at home as she strove to get a 'Masters' from Manchester University and professional 'chartered fellowship' status. Promotions inevitably followed and after a number of roles she reached the 'top table' when she became the director of Human Resources at Croydon Hospital.

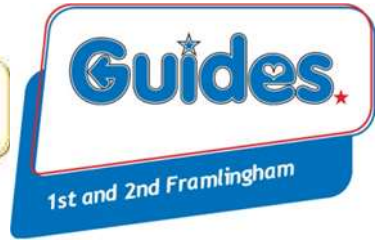

For many of the reasons that are so well rehearsed today, Annette's marriage failed to survive the pressures of modern life and she and Simon eventually separated.

Next phase.....

Annette's success as an HR Director soon became well known across London and when the interim job came up at St George's she was headhunted into that role. She returned briefly to Croydon before being appointed to the HR Director role at the Royal Free Hospital, one of the most prestigious roles in the country. Had she not become ill, I am sure she would have gone onto a senior national role, but sadly that was not to be. Annette was diagnosed with breast cancer in August 2012 and she took ill health retirement. She really missed work but has effectively been running Ipswich Hospital and more recently, Colchester Hospital and the STP for the past 5 years.

Annette faced her illness with amazing courage and strength. She never complained or made a fuss. Even when she was having treatment, she was often more concerned about the staff than what she herself was facing. I asked people to use three words to describe Annette. The most common word was kind. I have never met anyone so selfless and kind. She put other people's needs ahead of hers always. She was inspirational in the way she faced her life and her death. She was smart and professional at work, a trusted colleague who always gave good advice and counsel. Dazzling and elegant. Sophisticated and wise."

Can you help us?

Have you recently finished studying, moved or retired? Would you like to have fun, meet new people and “make a difference?” Do something amazing – help us to give girls in our community more opportunities for fun, friendship, challenge and adventure.

We need additional adult volunteers to help run our meetings in Framlingham. We already have a small, dedicated and enthusiastic band of leaders but more help would enable us to accommodate the high numbers of girls that want to join our Rainbow, Brownie and Guide units and enable us to offer a wider range of activities. If you can't help regularly at meetings could you help with admin or accounts or visit to share a skill or hobby? No experience required, just enthusiasm and a willingness to get stuck in. Would you have time to help or know someone who can? Although only women may be leaders, both men and women can be unit helpers and occasional helpers.

Our most urgent need is for help with Rainbows (aged 5-7) who meet early on a Thursday evening and Brownies (aged 7-10) who meet early on a Monday evening. However we also have other groups of Brownies meeting early on a Tuesday evening and Guides (aged 10-14) meeting later on Monday or Tuesday evenings who would also welcome more helpers.

Do get in touch by emailing Claire on guidinginfram@btinternet.com or ringing 01728 724372.

Wickham Market Flower Club Report and Information

In with a Floral Bang! Our first meeting of the year in January we were very happy to welcome several guests along with our usual members. Our speaker for the evening was a much-loved friend on his 17th visit to our club, Alan Smith, whose demonstration was entitled "Winter Symphony". Alan's first arrangement was depicting the fireworks welcoming in the New Year. Using a stand with two floret's he placed gold sprayed eucalyptus, wired bear grass, dried Allium's with bright orange and Cerise mini Gerberas. The design was only missing the bang. Amazing, and carried out with Alan's usual humour and chat. The next arrangement and indeed all the following ones were quickly put together with the air of a definite professional. Using Tortured Hazel, Senecio, Myrtle, Camelia, Skimmia with fir cones, Carnations in a variety of colours, orchids, chrysanthemums, Blue Spruce, Iris, Alstromeria and Witch Hazel, Alan truly was delightful to watch. Everyone had enjoyed watching his expertise and enjoyed his stories, helpful hints and jokes. Some members were lucky enough to win these arrangements in the raffle whilst enjoying refreshments.

FEBRUARY: meeting was our traditional "Hands On" evening. This is when we all take home an arrangement we have made under the wonderful and patient tuition of Sandra.

WINNERS: The winner of the last Newsletter competition, was Val Green winning a £10 Garden Gift Voucher. The winner of the Advanced Practice piece was Linda Fosker. The Novice winner was Jan Richardson. The Single stem winner was a stunning Hellebore entered by Jenny Payne.

MARCH: meeting is on 22nd March when Pat Barton will be our demonstrator and her topic will be "Butterfly Effect".

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: to fulfil our allocated volunteering dates for the St Elizabeth Hospice and the Children's hospice. This requires one pedestal, one table arrangement and one arrangement for EACH. Flowers are provided by the club and floral foam is at the hospice. Dates are 4th May and 24th August. Please contact June, the chairman if you are able to help with this.

CLUB OUTING: this year is to Ely Cathedral Flower Festival on Thursday 29th June. The cost is £33.00, which includes a meal on the way home so is as usual very good value. A £5 deposit will be required to secure your seat.

Any queries about any of the above, please contact June Allum on 01394 384803

Members wanting to contribute to the Flower Club Newsletter which is published twice a year, if you have photographs, handy hints, funny stories, poems or advice would be welcome, please send to this e-mail address m.13@btinternet.com .

The Flower Arranger magazine is available for those who had ordered.

The Kettleburgh Pantomime

Relax – you haven't missed it!!!!!!!

Your village theatre troop, The Kettleburgh Players, are performing their all new production of CINDERELLA at the Village Hall shortly!!

This year we have chosen a later date to allow more recovery time from the season's excesses, and to herald the arrival of spring with a production full of song, dance, drama, comedy and cross dressing. There will of course be the usual West End standard of staging, lighting and special effects – backed by the widely acclaimed in-house band.

And yes – there will be refreshments, ice-creams, and what has become (possibly) Suffolk's most anticipated raffle.

The dates for your diary are Thursday 22nd, Friday 23rd and Saturday 24th of March. Performances will be at 7.30 pm each day, plus 2.30 pm on the Saturday. As many of you will know, tickets will sell very quickly, so the wise will be straight on to Sue Brooks on 01728 724017, or better still susanebrooks@btinternet.com. Don't miss this chance to support your local village hall and experience the joy that is panto.....

Thanks for supporting your neighbours when they give these talks. Don't forget that although I already have some people lined up for next winter and spring, I'm still looking for a few more volunteers so get in touch if you have something you can talk about.

Dr Carley & Dr Brooks

We are delighted to welcome back Dr Carley from her maternity leave and we are grateful to Dr Brooks for covering for her over the past year and are pleased he will be returning from time to time to do some more locum cover.

Dr Hopton Cycle India

In November Dr Hopton is embarking on a 500 km cycle from Agra to Jaipur in 5 days. She is raising money for women v cancer (breast, cervical and ovarian cancers). If you would like to support her there are sponsorship forms at Reception or alternatively you can go to <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/susan.wright69>

The Hearing Care Centre has given the surgery a large tower of chocolates, sweets and biscuits and we will shortly be raffling this off in aid of the charity.

Proposed Extension to Surgery

Having had confirmation of the Community Infrastructure Levy we are tentatively moving forward with plans to extend the surgery. Over the next few weeks builders will be at the surgery preparing quotes for the work and once completed these will be re-submitted to NHS England for further consideration and, hopefully, final confirmation of a grant.

DNA Appointments

It would be very helpful if patients could inform reception if they are unable to attend an appointment. In the last quarter (1st October – 31st December 2017) there were 284 missed appointments which equates to over 47 hours of wasted clinical time.

Patient Survey

Our annual patient survey took place in October/November last year. We are very pleased that 90% of all patient ratings about the practice were good, very good or excellent. A detailed copy of the report is available on our website.

Employee of the Year

Over the past year the GP Partners have been selecting an Employee of the Month and from this list of successful nominations, an Employee of the Year has been chosen. Shelby Jessop who works in both the Administration and Reception Teams is the deserving winner. Shelby started at the Practice 16 months ago as an Apprentice and is now on a full term contract with us.

Travelling abroad with Medication

We all have heard in the news of people being imprisoned for carrying illegal medication into a country and we have the following advice for our patients travelling with medication:

- It is the patient's responsibility to establish the rules for their destination, airline and any country they are travelling through. These may all be different!
- You need to remember prescribed AND over-the-counter medications. (In some areas, common over-the-counter medications such as nasal decongestant inhalers (VICKS to you and I) and cough linctus are banned.)
- Even travelling within Europe may require some care if you are using controlled drugs:
 - Government advice is that a patient must be able to prove controlled medication belongs to them to travel into or out of the UK.
 - This requires a letter outlining use and countersigned by 'the person who prescribed the drugs'.
 - If carrying more than 3 months' supply, they will also need a Home Office licence: <https://www.gov.uk/travelling-controlled-drugs>

We advise you to contact the Embassy to ensure your medication is permitted. In some cases, you may require a letter for travel and as this is not a NHS service there will be a charge.

HISTORY CORNER

The Great White Horse Hotel in Ipswich

Most people visiting Ipswich these days will hardly notice the building at the junction of Northgate St and Tavern St and realize that here stands what was the most important hotel and coaching stage in the town, the Great White Horse. The sign over the front door was a rampant white stallion, proudly displaying , which annoyed nobody at the time, but as moral codes changed, was replaced by a docile, standing mare. The original was bought and still can be seen outside the Tattlingstone pub of the same name, the inference being that country people are less sensitive about such things as "townies"!

As is fairly commonly known, Charles Dickens stayed at the hotel in 1835 and based part of his novel, "The Pickwick Papers" on his experience. You may remember that Mr Pickwick wandered into the wrong bedroom and came face to face with a "lady in yellow curl papers". (Shock, horror!)

In January 1736, the monarch George the second, crossed from Holland in rough seas and landed at Lowestoft. He set off in his carriage, following the old A12 route, passing through Saxmundham and Woodbridge causing much excitement along the way. The bush telegraph got to work and, as they would today, people lined the route. He arrived in Ipswich at 11pm to find the streets lined with people holding burning brands and candle lamps. (1),

Here he alighted for rest and refreshment at the above hotel. He was shown upstairs to the great dining room where he met the magistrates and dignitaries of the town who "kissed the royal hand". We don't know what he had for his meal, but he was on his way again within an hour, passing through Colchester without stopping, and driving all night, arriving at St James' Palace at 2pm. (We moan about potholes today but driving all night in January must have been a dangerous thing to undertake.)

Other famous people who stayed at the hotel included Lord Nelson and Lady Hamilton who stayed in 1800. Nelson bought a property called "Roundwood" in Rushmere, which stood with a pillared front door in what later became Victory Rd. (As a young paper boy, I delivered newspapers to the house, which had, by then, been converted into flats). There is no evidence that the famous couple ever stayed there.

Note1. Ipswich main streets were lit by gas in 1818.

Thank you all for your continuing commitment to keep our lovely church looking so clean and welcoming.

As you can see the rota has been reduced with 'turns' coming around more frequently. If you know of anyone who would be willing to volunteer an hour of their time about once every 6 weeks, we would love to hear from them – they don't need to be church goers!
