PARISH NEWS
APRIL 2010

THE PARISHES OF BRANDESTON AND KETTLEBURGH

Dear Friends,

The first day of the month coincides with Maundy Thursday, when we relive the drama of the Last Supper in the Upper Room, followed by the desolation in the Garden of Gethsemane. And all this leading to the events on Good Friday, when the Lord of Life is nailed to a cross.

But of course the story does not end there. On April 4th we celebrate the great Festival of Easter. Our Churches, barren and bare during Lent become, at Easter, radiant with flowers and colour, symbols of new life.

‘He is Risen’ is the cry that is heard in Churches large and small, in tiny village churches to great Cathedrals. Christ, (as the lovely Collect for Easter Day puts it) ‘hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life.’

What that means is a mystery and yet, for the believer, a reality so profound that each year, and at each Easter Day, a new shaft of resurrection light illuminates the way before us.

May you all have a blessed Eastertide, and be filled with joy and hope in believing.

With love,

May God bless you,

Harry Edwards

BRANDESTON VILLAGE HALL SPRING CLEAN

This is an appeal to all Brandeston residents and users of our lovely hall – we need your help.

On Saturday, 8th May we are asking for volunteers to help with a spring clean up of the hall - around the building itself and some jobs to do inside. The committee would be very pleased to see you and grateful for your help. Start time is 10 a.m. – hope to see you there.

KETTLEBURGH ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

This will be held on Wednesday 12th May at 7:30 pm in Kettleburgh Village Hall. The Annual Parish Meeting provides an opportunity for everyone to hear what is going on locally and to make their views known. County and District Councillors, Suffolk Police, all our local organisations and our own Parish Council Chairman are invited to give reports. Take this opportunity to meet your local councillors. There will be a time for questions and refreshments will be provided.

This year the format will be slightly different, with an emphasis on the Parish Questionnaire which took place towards the end of 2009. To make time for this, some of the reports will not be read out, but they will be available for every household in printed form and on the website. Your Parish Councillors have been busy studying the results of the questionnaire and this will be an opportunity to present some of their findings, make some proposals and ask some questions. Come along and find out more. An invitation will be delivered to each house closer to the date.

A THANKSGIVING SERVICE FOR CHARLES GLASON

A warm sunny spring afternoon saw the service to celebrate the life of Charles Glason. Charles died peacefully in his sleep at home at Church Cottage, Kettleburgh on 4th March after a long illness. The service took place in a marquee in the orchard at Church Cottage surrounded by a carpet of snowdrops. The marquee was filled with members of the family, friends from Kettleburgh and Brandeston and as far afield as Cornwall and Germany. The Glason family came to Kettleburgh in 1961 when Charles and his twin brother William were 16 years old. Charles later lived in London returning to live permanently at Church Cottage some years later. The service included readings from W. H. Auden, C. Day Lewis, Shakespeare and Joyce Grenfell interspersed with the music of John Lennon, Bob Dylan and Van Morrison. Tributes from friends and family reminded us of Charles' life of teaching and his great love of his family. The refreshments that followed gave us all the chance to share memories of Charles with his friends. Charles was cremated in the morning and his ashes are now scattered in the grounds of Church Cottage.

Ute, Chloe and Kai thank everyone who helped with and came to the service and to those who sent cards and flowers a big thank you ...we send you our love.

PAST EVENTS

NEIL INNES SHOW

It is thanks to Fred Mugleston's friendship with Neil Innes that Brandeston Village Hall on 20 February became the first venue of Neil's UK and US tour with his one-man show "A People's Guide To World Domination". His involvement over the years with the Bonzo Dog Doo-Dah Band, The Rutles and more recently Spamalot ensured a keen fan base in Suffolk and it didn't seem long before all tickets had sold out and the waiting list for returns started growing.

From the moment he made his appearance on the stage to an excited and enthusiastic audience, it wasn't only Neil's jacket that dazzled. He showed an appreciative crowd what a talented song-smith and musician he is moving from song to song with seemingly effortless ease. He ranged from the dark philosophical and reflective to the comic and light-hearted, manipulating the audience's emotional response as he sang. In one of his songs, the juxtaposition of a late fifties style doo-wap, doo-wap sample played on the keyboard against a blues rhythm, coupled with comic lyrics, was quite surreal.

His musicality is impressive to watch as he showed his expertise on so many different instruments. It is no mean feat to perform such a variety of songs whilst humorously providing a theme to link each one.

The first half of the show flew past, the audience then enjoying a selection of canapés with a glass of wine before returning to their seats for another hour of original material delivered with such flair and wit.

Neil invited his audience to join in the chorus of his songs, encouraging them to lose their inhibitions. The foot stamping and the clapping (where we had to have a lesson to be told that there were only two beats and we were to clap on the off beat making it sound more in time with the music and less like applause) led to much laughter. A moment when some sustained low notes on the keyboard caused the noise limiter to cut the power to the amplifiers could have thrown a lesser performer. Not Neil though who with good grace spontaneously improvised, virtually making the blip a part of his show.

No one wanted the evening to end and Neil was persuaded to give two encores. We all had to go home sometime and everyone agreed that it was a magical evening when some real showbiz came to Brandeston.

Many thanks to all those who helped and provided food on the night. Very nearly £1200 was raised for village hall funds.

HOME-START

Home – Start is the UK's leading family support charity. Its home visiting work is unique in the UK and offers friendship, support and practical help to parents going through a difficult time for any reason e.g.: Illness or disability in the family, mental health issues, loneliness, isolation, homelessness and poverty. The Home-start Suffolk Coastal scheme was started in 1999 and since then has supported over 450 families, including more than 1180 children.

The Suffolk Coastal scheme recruits and trains parent volunteers who are then carefully matched with a family and offer whatever help is needed e.g.: a confidential listening ear or an extra pair of hands and eyes. This service is a lifeline to many local parents who have no family or friends locally or for whom life is an uphill struggle.

In addition to our Home- Visiting volunteers we run two successful family groups in Leiston and Felixstowe. These provide parents in need of support with a safe, stimulating environment where they feel accepted, included and are encouraged to play with their children and make new friends.

During 2009 the scheme expanded to meet local need, increasing support to up to 90 families a year and therefore increasing the need for further volunteers.

Each volunteer supports at least one family for 3 hours a week with travel expenses being reimbursed. Volunteers are only accepted by the scheme following CRB and reference checks.

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer and supporting a local family our next intake of volunteers starts at the end of April 2010. “Hold a Fish and Chip Supper to help spinal cord injured people live full and independent lives.”

GREAT BRITISH FISH AND CHIP SUPPER – Friday 21st May 2010

Want to do something different? Want to raise money where you live or work? Want to eat Fish and Chips, while raising money for charity? Hold a fish and chip supper on Friday 21st May 2010 whilst raising awareness of spinal cord injury and supporting SIA’s information and support services.

You can hold a fish and chip supper in your own home, at work or hold a larger supper at your local community centre.

SIA will provide a fundraising pack containing hints and tips, recipes, invitations and donation envelopes. By inviting 7 friends and asking them to donate an additional £5.00 means you will raise at least £35.00 from your supper but we will also give you additional fundraising ideas to raise even more money for SIA.

Last year we had over 80 suppers taking part in England and Wales. In 2010 we want to double that figure and ensure we can provide more support to spinal cord injured people.

The money raised from the suppers will help the Spinal Injuries Association offer support to individuals who become paralysed and their families, from the moment a spinal injury occurs, and for the rest of their lives by providing services and publications which enable and encourage paralysed people to lead independent lives.

Every year in the UK over 1,000 people experience a spinal cord injury and there are an estimated 40,000 spinal cord injured people in the UK alone.

Community Fundraising Officer, Elizabeth Wright, says, "The Fish and Chip Supper is a wonderful opportunity for a great evening with friends and family. We are also encouraging people who work to hold a Fish and Chip Lunch in their work places to raise even more funds. You may be even a local community group wanting to run a fun evening with your group.

Be a part of something special and make a real difference to help spinal cord injured people gain access to the information and support they need to enable them to live full and independent lives."

For more information or request a fundraising pack call Elizabeth Wright on 0845 678 6633 xtn 229 or email fishandchips@spinal.co.uk or visit www.spinal.co.uk

TIMES PAST

We have had a chilly winter, some of those in the past have been cold too. Here are the temperatures of the 1882-83 one taken from the Framlingham Weekly News of March 14th 1883:-

‘How cold it has been, much more severe in March than December.

December 11 th 1882	23° Farenheit	-9° Celcius
“ 12 th “	21° “	-11° “
March 8 th 1883	25° “	-7° “
“ 9 th “	23° “	-9° “
“ 10 th “	21° “	-11° “
“ 11 th “	27° “	-5° “
“ 12 th “	25° “	-7° “
“ 13 th “	26° “	-6° “
“ 14 th “	30° “	-2° “

Now to warmer thoughts of April and past Easters.

‘On the third of April come the cuckoo and the nightingale’.

Again, from the Framlingham Weekly News. In 1869 Brandeston had High Church leanings of which the paper did not approve. It was noted that on Good Friday the church was ‘put in black’ and this was ‘a danger signal on the Episcopal tramway’. Nothing was mentioned of the Easter Sunday celebrations.

Easter was always of great importance to the Nonconformists of the area. In 1838 the Brandeston Congregational Church was built which proved to be a very popular Sunday venue, well attended by people from the neighbouring villages. It was customary for a Good Friday tea to be served. In April 1889, 220 people partook of this. In 1890 the paper reported that ‘in the interval between the afternoon meeting and tea the pretty village street presented quite a holiday appearance with the perambulations of the young people’. Music was performed in the evening and a long list was given of the participants.

Easter was also enjoyed in Kettleburgh. ‘April 10th 1887. The church was tastefully decorated though not so elaborately as on former occasions owing to a scarcity of flowers. The service was conducted by the Rev. J.R. Kennedy-Bell. There was a specially large congregation in the afternoon, this being the reverend gentleman’s last Sunday here. Mr Kennedy-Bell, Curate in charge for the last 6 months has won the esteem and goodwill of all by the kind and energetic way in which he has worked in the parish. His leaving is much regretted ad his general and bright manner will be ling remembered by both old and young’.

‘At Easter let your clothes be new,
Or else, be sure, you will it rue’.
